DON'T MISS OUR FEATURED GUEST SPEAKER:

LARRY ELDER

A "firebrand libertarian" according to "Daily Variety," best-selling author and radio talk-show host Larry Elder has a take-no-prisoners style, using such old-fashioned things as evidence and logic. Larry shines the bright light of reasoned analysis on many of the myths and hypocrisies apparent in our system of government, our society, and the media itself. He slays dragons and topples sacred cows using facts, common sense and a ready wit.

Larry Elder has been on KABC Talk Radio in Los Angeles since March, 1994, hosting "The Larry Elder Show," a daily program from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. (PT) on KABC 790, and began a nationally syndicated daily talk show for ABC Radio Networks on August 12, 2002. Known to his listeners as the "Sage From South Central," Larry sizzles on the airwaves with his thoughtful insight on the day's most provocative issues, to the delight, consternation, and entertainment of his listeners. The "Sage" engages political and cultural leaders in meaningful debates over race, government, personal responsibility and education that have elevated the talk radio genre. A blend of fiscal conservative and social liberal—with attitude—Elder's libertarian views have fueled controversy and made him one of the most in-demand radio personalities in the country. In May, 2003, Elder shifted his political party registration from "Decline to State" (which, in California, means independent) to the Republican Party. He continues to support the libertarian principles of limited government and maximum personal and financial responsibility.

In his best-selling book, The 10 Things You Can't Say in America, Larry skewers the crippling myths that dominate the public agenda. Larry punctures all pretension, trashes accepted "wisdom" and puts everyone on notice that the status quo must be shaken up. In his new book, Showdown: Confronting Bias, Lies and the Special Interests That Divide America—released in Fall 2002—Larry again takes on liberals, victicrats and the politically correct. He currently writes a nationally syndicated newspaper column which is distributed through Creators Syndicate.

"The Ten Things You Can't Say in America" spent several weeks on the "New York Times" and "Los Angeles Times" best-seller lists. "Showdown" debuted at number 24 on the "New York Times" extended list and appeared on the "Los Angeles Times" paperback best-seller list. He also won a Los Angeles local Emmy for best news special. He received a Congressional proclamation for contributions to America for his radio program.

Born and raised in South Central Los Angeles, Elder attended Brown University, receiving a BA in Political Science in 1974. He then attended University of Michigan, School of Law, graduating in 1977. Immediately following graduation, he worked with a large law firm in Cleveland, Ohio, where he practiced litigation.

It's Time to Renew Your Membership!

MESSAGE from the PRESIDENT

Dear Members,

Here we are into March and already we've had such great speakers in 2007. We appreciate your support and love seeing you at the meetings. There is no way that we could have such outstanding speakers and venues without the dedication of our outstanding board of directors. I hope that you get a chance to thank them for the incredible job that they do in supporting this organization. Without a great board sharing the workload we would not be able to produce such extraordinary events. Kudos and thanks once again to our board of directors!

I know that it's not possible for everyone to serve on the board, but if you would like to be on a committee or work on the annual fundraiser we would love to have you for any amount of time. Our goal, once again, is to raise $10,000 to use in supporting candidates that will be running in the upcoming Presidential election. There is so much riding on the outcome of 2008 that we can never do enough. We can only try to do our best. We are a group of women who are very good at that. United in a cause, we are formidable and we plan to continue to be that way all the way to the White House in 2008.

One of the ways that you can support the MRWF is by contributing a gift each month at our luncheon to be used in the raffle or for a silent auction. We all have items that we're not making use of that someone else would love and by donating them to the organization you can help to raise money for our common goal. You may want to make a special box during spring-cleaning marked MRWF. Contact Alice Starr or Claire Vopatek about donating your items.

Thanks again for your support. See you next week at the Larry Elder luncheon.

Best regards,
Sandra J. McFadden
President, MRWF

Blackburn seeks to close loophole in U.S. banking By Bartholomew Sullivan

sullivanb@shns.com

March 6, 2007

WASHINGTON -- U.S. Rep. Marsha Blackburn, R-Tenn., introduced legislation Monday that would prevent illegal immigrants from receiving credit cards from American financial institutions.

The Photo Identification Security Act would require banks to use what Blackburn calls "secure forms of identification" to obtain credit. In a statement put out by her office, she says that Bank of America "has come under fire in response to reports that it allows illegal immigrants access to credit cards without proper documentation."

Bank of America spokesmen maintain that they follow the letter of the law in permitting customers to use the forms of identification permissible under the U.S.A. Patriot Act. That includes matricula consular cards issued by the Mexican government.

"The American people deserve to know that the integrity and security of our financial institutions will remain intact," Blackburn said in a statement Monday. "This bill closes a critical loophole that banking institutions have used to circumvent the letter of the law they have used to target illegal aliens as a new source of revenue. It says to banks and illegal immigrants alike, 'You can't get a Visa, without a visa.'"

Bank of America issues the secured, or collateralized, credit cards only after a customer has established a deposit account, and to get a deposit account, the company requires a Social Security number, proof of U.S. government federal taxpayer status, or other documents listed as identification by the Patriot Act.

Legislative Victory Alert: Sen. Dutton Drops his Support of SB 752-Baby Handout Bill

Thank you, we did it! Bob Dutton announced on March 2, 2007 that after hearing from THOUSANDS of Californians, he has withdrawn his support of SB 752 – the $500 Baby Handout Bill. All of you who called in or e-mailed his office made a real difference – and proved that even in "post-partisan" California, principles matter. -----Sen. Tom McClintock

Federalist Quotes In time for TAX SEASON

"A government which lays taxes on the people not required by urgent public necessity and sound public policy is not a protector of liberty, but an instrument of tyranny." --Calvin Coolidge

Senate Tired of Your E-mails, Phone Calls; Expected to Pass Bill that Will Keep You From Getting Needed Information Source: American Action Alert

The U.S. Senate is poised to pass Senate Bill 1 (Section 220), which would effectively keep AFA and every other pro-family organization in America from providing you information on bills in Congress. Under Senate Bill 1 (Section 220), we would only be able to provide you information on a bill at a high cost and at great danger of being penalized by Congress.

To put it bluntly, members of Congress are tired of getting your e-mails and phone calls, and Senate Bill 1(Section 220) is designed to keep information from you that might inspire you to call or write your senator.

The new Democratic Senate thinks that if it can keep you from getting information—which is what Senate Bill 1 (Section 220) would do—then it will not be getting e-mails and phone calls from you.

Senators favoring this bill are simply tired of hearing from you. That is the bottom line. They don't want to hear from you. They don't want you to be informed. They want to silence you. How? By simply keeping you from receiving information that AFA provides.

TAKE ACTION:

1. Send an email to your senators
2. Call your two senators at 202-224-3121. (Simply ask for one senator. Then call the other one at the same number. Ask your senators to vote against Senate Bill 1 (Section 220).
