President's Message

from Alice M. Starr

We only have a few spaces remaining for the Dennis Prager event on April 14, so be sure to send in your reservations today. No payment will be taken at the door. If you have not renewed your membership or you and a friend would like to join MRWF, it is not too late. However, those who do not join by the end of April will not have the opportunity to be listed in our 2008 Membership Directory.

Our heartfelt thanks go out once again to Cindy Linke, our Patriotism Chairman, who is leading the effort to prepare and send Memorial Day care packages for the troops. Will you spare a few moments to help write postcards, bring supplies, stuff bags with goodies, or make a contribution to this effort? Our brave men and women in uniform truly appreciate these care packages.

Please save the date of Sunday, May 18 from 6 - 8 pm. You and your guests are cordially invited to attend our MRWF fundraising event featuring Hollywood's "First American Idol," Pat Boone, TV star, Wink Martindale, plus Michelle Bernard, TV and radio commentator and President of the Independent Women's Forum. We are going to have a blast!

Now that John McCain will be our Republican nominee for President, I am happy to report that he is gaining momentum each and every day, as his strong stand on national security and Islamic Terrorism and his strength of character are contrasted with the two Democratic candidates. He will run a positive, respectful campaign which will attract many undecided and independent voters.

As our dynamic speakers so powerfully stated at the March 27 luncheon, we must each do our part to make sure John McCain wins in November along with Congressional and local Republican candidates. The future of our Republic is at stake.

Blessings to all,

Alice

Cindy Linke

Cindy Linke, our Fourth VP in charge of Campaigns, comes originally from Minnesota. With her brothers she was part of a family act touring fairs, circuses and rodeos. Cindy was an acrobat – and you thought Republicans were quiet, retiring people!

Cindy taught pre-school through 6th grade in L.A. public schools and also at Berkeley Hall, a private school. She has grown children and thirteen grandchildren!

Cindy inspires us all by her tremendous patriotism and concern for our brave troops. She heads up our efforts to send care packages to our soldiers, and she has received Malibu's Dolphin Award for her great dedication and countless volunteer hours in making this twice-yearly project so successful. Thank you, Cindy!

March MRWF Luncheon - Highlights

from Lorraine Stalberg

At our March 27 panel discussion, "How Republicans Can Win in '08," we learned firsthand how to help Republicans at all levels. Each of us can help register new Republicans, go door to door in our precincts, and send out key mailings with guidance of how to vote on issues as well as candidates. We all agreed that we must work hard for McCain to prevent a Clinton or Obama presidency!

SUPPORT OUR TROOPS: Be a Hero to a Hero!

Join us from 9 am to 12 noon on Thursday, April 3 for a fun morning of letter writing and sewing (no skills needed) in preparation for the May 22 packing party. Come to the home of Patti Ogden at 6722 Fern Hill in Point Dume.

You can help by bringing supplies such as colorful or patriotic stationery, postcards, pens, scissors, red, white and blue thread, straight pins and darning-type needles. Or you may want to sponsor a box for 50 soldiers for just $30 as a great way to honor Memorial Day.

The next packing party for the troops will be held on Thursday, May 22 from 9 to 12 noon at 5810 Filaree Heights in Zuma Beach. Items needed are small packets of Skittles candy, beef jerky, snacks, candy, movie CDs and DVDs, socks, lotion, shampoo, conditioner, magazines, crosswords, paperbacks, chapstick, sunscreen, baby wipes, stamps, stationery, and postcards.

Call Cindy Linke for more information at 310-457-4510. Send tax-deductible contributions to: Operation Interdependence, 29851 Harvester Road, Malibu 90265.

THANK YOU FOR CARING!
